Phoenix printers have received word from J. A. Ball, who went from there to Boston to attend the Typographical convention, to the effect that the convention has refused to grant his request for a tent colony at Phoenix to treat tuberculosis, but has agreed to assist the local printers in the care of indigent sick, especially members of the craft who go there afflicted with tuberculosis.

A R. Jenkins and daughter and a Mexican and his wife barely escaped with their lives in an attempt to cross the Salt river Thursday between Phoenix and Tempe.

W. B. Twitchell of Phoenix and R. E. Twitchell of Albuquerque, brothers, are organizing an orange grove association with a capital of $100,000, with the object of planting 160 acres belonging to W. B. Twitchell in the Salt river valley to oranges.

Paul Ferch, formerly of Phoenix, was killed by a train one day this week at San Bernardino, Cal.

Two bars of gold weighing 200 pounds each were shipped in the day from the Cerro Prieta mines in Sonora.

The contract for furnishing 33,000 barrels of fuel oil to the reclamation service at Roosevelt was pulled down by the Pioneer Consolidated Transfer company of Phoenix.

ARIZONA'S GREAT DAM

320,000 Cubic Yards of Masonry Go Into Its Construction

The Roosevelt dam will eclipse in magnitude of cubic contents all of the dams at present under construction by the reclamation service. It will contain 320,000 cubic yards of masonry, or over six times more than the Pathfinder, or nearly five times as much as the Shoshone dam. Its height will be 280 feet from foundation, length on top 630 feet—including spillway bridges, 1,080 feet, and its thickness at the base 165 feet. In plan, although built in the form of an arch, this structure differs from the Shoshone and Pathfinder dams in being of the gravity type, wherein mass alone is sufficient to secure stability. The resulting reservoir will be the largest artificially formed lake in the world, a body of water 25 miles long.

REDMEN'S SMOKER

Friday Evening In Honor of Deputy Great Inchoonee Leon Godchaux

Deputy Great Inchoonee Leon Godchaux, the distinguished Redman, is expected in Tombstone tomorrow morning from Nogales and will remain in the city until Saturday. He has been doing heavy business in Nogales in connection with the excellent order which he represents. A smoker in his honor is planned for Friday evening, August 28th, in which refreshments and all the usual attractions will appear. All Redmen and visiting brothers are cordially and urgently invited to be present, as a compliment to Deputy Great Inchoonee Godchaux, to whose able, intelligent and devoted work, the present prosperous condition of Opatz Tribe, No. 15, I. O. R. M., is overwhelmingly due. The tribe now numbers over sixty-five in good standing and it will undoubtedly be a profound pleasure to the gentlemen above mentioned to gather with the warriors he did so much to muster in.

SISTER GOVERNMENT

Taking Measures to Prevent Disturbances on Independence Day.

An El Paso dispatch says:—

The Mexican government is taking every possible step to guard against the recurrence of the recent border troubles on September 15th, the anniversary of the independence of the country. Troops are being distributed all along the border and in sections remote from the larger cities. At border posts, colonels are taking the places of captains and majors who were heretofore in command. Precautions will be taken against the congregating of crowds at places not designated on the celebration program.

From Monday's Daily.

OFFICIAL CITY CALL

For Primary Election and Conventions Is Made by Common Council

The official call for the city election, primaries and conventions has been made by the Mayor and Common Council, notice of which appears in another column. The plan advanced to have the proclamation include the election of city clerk, city treasurer, city attorney and city health officer, fixing the salaries at the nominal figure heretofore paid, could not, it appears, be considered. The last legislature passed Act 62, with reference to municipalities casting less than 600 votes, abolishing the offices above named and making the only salaried office that of chief of police, upon whom is incumbent the duties of half a dozen official positions. Tombstone having cast a little less than 600 votes is held to come under the provisions of this law, hence the only officials to be elected will be a mayor, 4 councilmen and a chief of police.

SIX WILY CHINAMEN

Are Captured in a Box Car By An Immigration Inspector.

At Alamogordo, N. M., Immigration Inspector Griffin captured six Chinamen in a Rock Island box car. The car consisted of one, shipped from Los Angeles and billed to Brighton, Pa. The S. P. Los Angeles seals had not been broken, but the bottom clasp had been removed from the door and the Chinamen slipped in, apparently at El Paso or at some point in Arizona, for they had not eaten any of the supplies which they carried with them.

The Chinamen had three five-gallon cans of water, ten pounds of sausage, ten cans of various sorts of canned goods, 12 packages of crackers and a sack of lemons.

The Chinamen had no certificates and will have a hearing there before the United States commissioner and be deported.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Tom A. Keene, representing the El Paso Evening News is in Tombstone, his object being a special write-up for the old camp in that excellent daily.

Paul Murphy received word yesterday morning that his father, former governor and delegate, Oaks Murphy, would be buried at an early hour today, thus rendering it impossible for the son to be present. Paul was somewhat surprised at this since the family resting place, including the graves of the father and mother of the late distinguished Arizonan is at Prescott.

We are compelled to admit that the bird called the mosquito has shown a rather too promiscuous fondness for newspaper fellows in Tombstone here of late. That low, keen, scissory song of his makes your couch a bed of horrors. Guess he was sent just to keep you from suicide, since, after one bites you, though you had already bought the cyanide of potassium, you change your mind and determine on his death first. This keeps you alive through dog days, and when the cold nights come on you outlive your despondency. Pretty scheme, the mosquito.

Tom Larrieu was up from the Larrieu "stomping grounds" yesterday.

Another disastrous flood visited Bisbee yesterday causing damage to the extent of $25,000. The main street was visited by the greatest rush of water recorded in the history of the city. Seven horses were washed into the subway and everything movable along the route was carried along with the torrent. All the business houses suffered great losses and the streets badly torn up. Fortunately no fatalities were recorded. Heavy and ominous looking clouds appeared in the direction of Bisbee today and for a time it was feared a second storm visited that city. Advice from there, however, state the storm circled about them and no damage reported from that source.

A warrant is out for Harry Hasselgren for discharging firearms within the city limits and otherwise disturbing the peace, quiet and dignity of Arizona and Tombstone in particular. The discharge of several pistol shots about 8 o'clock last night aroused the neighborhood of Fourth and Allen streets and the rapidly disappearing form of Hasselgren, mounted on his cowpony, explained the cause of it. He will be brought back to explain matters before his honor, Judge McFarland.

THE THUNDER ROLLED

And Lightning Played Strange Pranks in Tombstone Yesterday.

Picking was not so shy for the lightning editor yesterday. Old boy Klocker lives in a small house a short distance across the track from the depot. A telephone pole stands about thirty feet from the corner of his house. This pole was hit and practically demolished and the old gentleman said it seemed to him he had been blown to the Fiji Islands.

In the depot everything was demoralized, the lightning playing remarkable pranks including the lighting of electric lamps, ending up with a tremendous bolt that threw Agent West ereft off his chair and made more noise than a box of giant. Hereafter the employees in the depot office will probably have urgent business at home when it clouds up too strongly.

W. M. Adamson for Supervisor.

Today the announcement of W. M. Adamson for supervisor, subject to the endorsement of the Democratic county convention, appears in the columns of THE PROSPECTOR. Mr. Adamson is not a political adventurer, neither is he a politician. He is a man who with W. A. Clark, the Copper Queen Consolidated and a score of other powerful companies, has demonstrated his splendid capacity for business pure and simple.

He sought and gained the majority of Douglas, because, along with other representative men he was heavily interested; because he discovered abuses or instances of neglect which the tax payer had a right to grapple, and he had confidence in his own ability as a steersman. He fully, ripely and richly vindicated the favorable prophecies made concerning him and declined re-election. In the capacity of supervisor, he would follow the same splendid course. All principle, all business, all practical ability his party could put no more available, and the people could elect no more competent man.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, gone!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

R. E. Davis of the Huachuca water company and wife returned yesterday from the east, and as would naturally be assumed, enjoy the sweet old home climate here, after leaving the mighty east in a bath of perspiration.

THE MAN WHO SWEARS BY THE FISH BRAND SLICKER

The storm was really a bit stronger than we ordered. There was a wire crossed or some other misunderstanding between THE PROSPECTOR office and the weather clerk.
